BILL CURTAIN'S THIRST LANDS HIM IN JAIL

Bill Curtin, a local character, was arrested Monday evening by Deputy Constable Turner. During the day Bill had been imbibing with the idea that he had been commissioned a sampler of wines by Uncle Sam. Unfortunately, William started in to test the lowest grade first—the ten-cents-a-quart kind. "That's g-o-o-d," said Bill to himself after drinking the first glass. "It's far superior to the stuff served over the bars in Clay-street cafes before the big earthquake. Sure another little one will do me no harm."

So he kept on sampling, and before evening was in a hilarious mood. Through the kindness of a friend Curtin has been provided with a room. When his thirst had been satisfied he staggered homeward and sought his couch—at least, the couch sought him. For a time he slumbered. Suddenly he awoke, as if from a dream. "There is rats in this room—them that spread the bubonic plague!" yelled Bill. "I'll get up, 'borrow' my friend's shotgun and rid the place of the vermin."

"There's a bounty on those plague-carrying rats. I can surely bag one, deliver it to my friend Judge Hannon and collect my 'tin cents.' And—then another quart of wine for Bill Curtin of Jersey."

The occupants of the house were out at the time, the gun was secured, and the gentleman from the land of the big mosquito stalked out in search of the disturbers of his slumber. Bill hunted and hunted, but not a rodent in sight. He was mad. He was also thirsty.

No rat, no wine, soliloquized the dry one. Maybe my old pal Jailer Lorton has some. I'll try him; I'll just break in to Sheriff Chatham's hotel. Bill was as good as his word. He dis-charged the contents of the shotgun at some imaginary object, endangering the lives of several children playing in the street in the vicinity.

The "Judge" was summoned and placed "Bill Curtin of Jersey" under arrest and escorted him to the county jail. No charge has as yet been placed against him, but it is probable that he will be examined as to his sanity.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

This is the Fourth of July, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the northern boundary line of the United States to the Mexican line on the south the day will be celebrated with enthusiasm by all the people, irrespective of creed, class or color. We are a united people who feel proud of the country's achievements and past history. No day appeals to the American heart more than the Fourth of July—the day that independence was declared by the American colonies, and the day that made the United States the land of the free hearts, hope and home. Let us celebrate in accordance with the importance of the day, not riotous, drunkenness or blasphemy but rather in reverence and respect to the heroes of 1776. Let us hope that our country will always adhere to the ideals of the founders of the republic and grow in greatness and virtue as the years roll on.

A statesman is wise who learns to choose his historian with due caution.

Many suggestions are offered for a Taft cabinet, but nobody thinks it worth while to speculate on Mr. Bryan's constitutional advisers.

President Roosevelt and Mr. Taft can get along together even when the theme is Harvard and Yale athletics.

Mr. Bryan's new platform will carefully exclude everything Republican and nearly all of his own former issues and theories.

Time, money, experience and pluck will certainly bring a practical and reliable airship. The American inventor never surrenders.

It is a singular fact that while Mr. Bryan gets his electoral votes in the South he never has a word to say on the negro question.

The Democratic candidate for vice-president ought to be a man who will measure up to what Senator Lodge calls the "undiscovered future" of the party.

Politics is such a favorite pastime in Iowa that the Republicans of that state could not spare either Senator Dolliver or Governor Cummins for the national ticket this year.

Cuba's reluctance to part with an American form of government suggests that the Filipinos would show a similar feeling if the United States proposed to withdraw from that quarter.

In a recent address in parliament Lord Avebury said: "I am sure that if the ladies knew how cruel the traffic is, they would never wear the plumes of birds, for after all they do not look nice on them." If one of these reasons falls, the other is certain to get in its work.

Woodside Chpts

M. B. Jackson and his daughter Miss Ida will leave shortly for a three months trip with relatives in Maine.

Miss Lula Meyer of San Francisco is enjoying a month's rest with her folks in this place.

Mrs. C. S. Dalve is having a large barn erected on her property. The work is being done by a city firm.

C. K. McIntosh and A. W. Jackson are sinking wells on their respective places. The water supply is getting low on account of no spring rains and many property owners are putting in private water systems as a result.

Our people will be pretty well scattered on the Fourth. Woodside will be represented at nearly all the nearby celebrations.

A good many campers are pitching their tents among our redwood groves. This place affords some ideal camping spots and its nearness to the trains make it a very desirable spot for campers who like to be near their business.

Charles Serreau has erected a neat tank house on his Portola property. Mr. Serreau intends to build a beautiful home here in the near future.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Josselyn and Gerald Rathbone took place Tuesday at the home of the Josselyns in San Francisco. Bishop Wm. Ford Nichols officiated in the presence of about 150 guests. Miss Myra Josselyn was maid of honor and Misses Margaret Newhall, Emily Wilson, Elena Robinson, Maud Lowen, Marjorie and Mary Josselyn acted as bridesmaids. The entire house was charmingly decorated with ferns and Canterbury bells. After the wedding breakfast the young couple departed on their wedding trip. Mrs. Rathbone is the daughter of Charles Josselyn the well-known ship chandler of San Francisco, who has a beautiful residence at Woodside, and the groom is a nephew of the late Major J. L. Rathbone.

The trustees of the Portola school have appointed Miss Rose Fromherz of Palo Alto to teach for next term. She takes the place of Miss Alice Hammond who has secured a position in the Blimont school.

No Road on Chestnut Street

Word was received here Tuesday from the Stauffer Chemical Company that it gave up its intention to reach its land on the water front by Chestnut street, as another route had been secured, and therefore the money raised to assist in macadamizing that street might be returned to the subscribers. The new route will prove more advantageous to the town, as it will open a large area of desirable factory sites. For some time past the Company has been seeking private rights of way and have outlined a route over certain property leading to the salt beds.

Marriage Licenses Issued

The following marriage licenses were issued from the County Clerk's office during the week:

George More, aged 30, and Selma Johnson, aged 25, both of San Francisco.

Myron Philip Barnes, aged 34 and Mary R. Black, aged 22, both of San Francisco.

Carl Peterson, aged 32 and Emma Beining, aged 28, both of San Francisco.

Look Out for Forest Fires

State Forester Lull sends a notice calling attention to the fact that the Forest Law of California places a penalty of a fine not less than $25 nor more than $500, or imprisonment in the County Jail not less than 15 days nor more than 6 months, for setting off fireworks in forest or brush-covered land, whether this land be the property of the one using the fireworks or not. Campers should pay attention to this, and be careful where they explode firecrackers or set off rockets.

Redwood City Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Redwood City citizen:

Samuel Hall, living at 207 Stambaugh st., Redwood City, Cal., says: "I was troubled more or less for three or four years from a disordered condition of the kidneys. I did not suffer from backache, but an annoying symptom of a disordered condition of the kidney secretions, and I was forced to arise many times during the night on account of their too frequent action. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, and deciding to give them a trial, I procured a box at F. A. Ryan's Drug Store. I used them according to directions and the kidney secretions became normal and regular and the weakness disappeared. I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

San Mateo Wins Again
Last Sunday at San Mateo, the Redwood team was again defeated, making three straight games lost to the San Mateo team out of the series of five to be played. Score 3 to 2. The game was exciting throughout, and as the score shows, very close contested. The remaining two games with San Mateo will not be played.

There is a movement on foot for two local teams to play four or five games, in order to raise funds to improve the diamond and pay for the grandstand here. When this is done the new management will put a team in the field that will hold their own with amateurs in the state. The first game of this series will be played Sunday, July 12th. There will be no game tomorrow.

This morning the All Redwood team will play at San Bruno, their opponents being the San Bruno team. As the All Redwood team has lost but three games out of fifteen it is safe to figure on them to win from San Bruno.

NEW COUNCIL INSTITUTED

Knights of Columbus Obligate Fifty-Seven

Last Sunday the people of San Mateo gave the Knights of Columbus a royal welcome. The visitors were entertained in a manner that reflected credit upon the citizens. The knights began arriving at nine o'clock and when the last train arrived at 11 o'clock a line of march was formed at the depot and headed by the Knight of Columbus band of San Francisco nearly 2000 visitors marched to St. Matthews Catholic church where a high mass was sung by Father Dugan. Father Callaghan in a few well chosen words welcomed the knights to San Mateo. At the conclusion of his address, Father Philip O'Ryan of San Francisco delivered a forcible and eloquent sermon explaining the objects and aims of the Knights of Columbus. At the conclusion of the services the immense congregation, numbering over 1500, arose and sang with fervor rarely witnessed, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

After the services members of the order and the ladies assembled at a grove just back of the church for the banquet. The colors of the order were made conspicuous in the decoration of the tables and the sylvan dining-hall, bunting and flowers having been used to pretty effect. The arrangements for the banquet were made by J. B. Fahey and the ladies that served the fifteen hundred guests so perfectly was composed of the following with Bliss Louise Dailey as chairman:

After luncheon the guests were given a drive about the town in carriages, trolleybuses and automobiles. During the afternoon an exhibition lacrosse game was played for the benefit of the visitors and a number also attended the baseball game between Redwood and San Mateo. The Knights were made guests of honor at both places of amusement.

While the visitors were enjoying the hospitality of the San Mateo people the second and third degrees of the order were given at Athletic hall to the fifty-seven members of the new San Mateo Council. The second degree was given by Neal Power, of San Francisco, officer of the fourth degree, and he was assisted by Officers Burnett, of San Jose, and Farrell and staff, of San Francisco. The third degree was given under the direction of State Deputy Grand Knight T. S. Savage, of San Francisco, and J. J. Coyle, of Fresno.

Following are the members:

San Mateo—Jos. P. Britt, Jas. J. Brown, John E. Burke, John E. Casey, William Casey, Owen Clancy, John Cronin, Cornelius Darby, E. J. Doolin, Rev. J. D. Duggan, H. T. Fitzgerald, Harry Gittings, J. F. Killelea, George Killelea, William J. L. Lague, Patrick T. Maloney, Delton McCarthy, John L. McCarthy, Dr. A. J. McKinnon, Clement Nash, Raymond O'Grady, Jos. A. Radford, George Rapp, Dennis Riordan, V. B. Scanlan, M. Sheehan, John J. Shields, Harry Smith.

Burlingame—John V. Doherty, Ray Whelan.

South San Francisco—Patrick Bowler, Maurice Cottiere, J. L. Debedendetti.

Redwood City—Peter A. Ryan, Rev. John J. Sullivan.

Menlo Park—John J. Doyle, A. Gale Patrick Kearney, John B. Kelly, Cornelius E. Maloney, Cornelius T. Maloney, Thomas F. Maloney, T. P. Maloney, John Morey, Harry B. Morey, Jr., John O'Farrell, Thomas O'Farrell, James T. O'Keefe, D. E. O'Keefe, Thomas Smythe, Albert I. Shine, George E. Shine, Charles M. Weeden.

The closing events were the banquet and band concert at the Peninsula. At nine o'clock five hundred knights sat down to an elaborate menu in the large dining-rooms of the hotel. Even with the extensive facilities of the hotel, fully a hundred more were served in the grill room. While the banquet progressed the league band rendered excellent music on the hotel veranda and hundreds of people promenade the walks of the grounds or rested on the cool lawn after the warm day. If ever San Mateo appreciated its big hotel it was on this occasion. The evening was made delightful for the banqueter within as well as for the visitor on the outside and the hospitable caravansary and its management was the recipient of many praises. The special trains began moving out at ten o'clock carrying homeward the visitors after the most pleasant day spent in San Mateo, and by midnight all had departed for their homes.

CITY COUNCIL

HOLD MEETING

Chief Lowe of the fire department was questioned by Chairman Merrill of the board of trustees, Monday evening, regarding means to be taken for the improvement of the fire service and to stimulate the enthusiasm of the members. The chief stated that in his opinion a complete reorganization was necessary as the members had become so lax in their duties that it was impossible to secure a quorum at meetings consequently no company business had been done for a long time. The men work well at a fire but no drills take place and therefore no instruction can be given and the members have no opportunity to become acquainted with their duties.

Hynding suggested that induc-ments be offered in the way of prizes for company excellence in competitive drills and races.

Mr. Merrill assured the chief that the trustees will do anything for the betterment of the department and that he will receive their backing in any measures which he may take. Poll-tax which has been paid by firemen will be refunded upon the production of evidence that the person is an active member of the department and in good standing.

The chairman desired that men be stationed at each fire house to be on the lookout for fires and to see that the apparatus is in fit condition for use.

The chief was instructed to issue a call for a meeting on Thursday, July 9th, at 8 p. m. in the town hall, when the fire delegates can confer with the Trustees regarding the improvement of the service.

The City Attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance defining the duties of the marshal, night watchman, street superintendent and clerk and the remuneration which they shall receive, it being the intention of the board to make changes in the duties of the marshal by relieving him of some of the services which he is now called upon to perform.

The night watchman will be required to act as janitor of the fire department and town hall, and to make a daily report of all irregularities in lights, overflowing or waste at tanks, or any infraction of the liquor or other ordinance. In compensation for the increase in his duties an increase is made in his salary to $90 per month, making his office a fully paid one, and doing away with all private subscription.

An increase in the salary of clerk was decided upon to be made in the way of pay for services beyond what is called for in his regular duties.

The increase will double his present salary and is made in this way to allow the compensation to commence at once, instead of waiting two years, as would have been the case if an increase of salary was ordered.

City Attorney Thorpe and Clerk Plump certifying that twenty-five saloon keepers had filed the proper applications with the requisite number of signatures of recommendations accompanied by sufficient surety bonds as required, a resolution was adopted granting saloon licenses to Herman Anderson, Wm. B. Curran,
John C. Barg, Albert Hottel, Long & Green, W. B. Wilson, Chas. Imporzani, Alonzo Cook, Louis Brant, Geo. A. Genocchio, Wm. J. Plump, P.
J. Foley, Bart Sheehan, Joe Raza, V. Bernasche, Stafford Bros., Larrouy Bros., E. F. Schumacher, G. C.
Plump, M. J. Moran, Elin Anderson,
Chas. Lucher, H. S. Sears, Geo. A.
Botch and John Meyer.

A petition was received from the Enomoto Bros., nurserymen on Redwood avenue, near Hawes street, requesting that water pipes be laid to their property.

Street Superintendent Dickey reported that it would require several thousand feet of pipe to comply with the request, and the matter was referred to committee of public works.

W. O. Dodge was allowed claim of $10 which had been withheld from ditch contract payment, until rolling was completed. The work being done to the satisfaction of the street superintendent no objection was raised to the claim.

Chairman Merrill said that he and Mr. Dineen had agreed that the latter should curb, subgrade and put bottom rock on the county road, the town to add the top dressing.

Mr. Hynding chairman of committee of public works was instructed to inspect the rock to be used.

The clerk was directed to advertise for bids for the furnishing of a carload of vitrified sewer pipe, and also for the laying of 100 feet of sewer pipe on Pine street.

The street superintendent was directed to inform the board as to the amount of water pipe that is needed in the construction of culverts.

A resolution was presented by Hynding setting forth the necessity of the extension of Phelps street to Jefferson and advising that action be taken to determine the most feasible manner in which this improvement can be made and also acquire the property necessary in the right of way. Referred to committee of public works.

A meeting was called for tonight at the town hall to which property owners along the proposed extension are invited to appear and express their views.

City Attorney Thorpe was instructed to prepare the town ordinances and have them printed.

Another New Order

Monday evening a lodge of the National Union, a fraternal insurance order, was instituted in this city with 56 charter members, and the following officers were elected:

Past president, Thos. Wilson; president, C. M. Maurer; vice-president, K. F. Chittick; recording secretary, H. O. Helzer; financial secretary, A.
L. Lowe; treasurer, B. Sheehan; chaplain, Geo. M. Hottel; sergeant-at-arms, E. H. Hey; door keeper, T.
Honey; trustees, Frank Miller, W.
Dougherty and J. Mills. The lodge was organized by Sam Oppenheimer and District Deputy C. Wilson of San Francisco. After the work was concluded the members sat down to a spread at which, besides the vicials, speeches of wit and jollity prevailed. The meetings of the lodge will be held in Odd Fellows hall on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. It is the intention of the organizers to give an entertainment, in the near future, at which will appear the company known as the "Native Daughters," who please the people of San Mateo a few weeks ago.
